Dear Mr

Confidentiality undertaking

We wish to investigate the business of _____ in connection with our negotiations with you for the proposed acquisition of the said business. (“Permitted Purpose”)

In consideration of your agreeing to supply, and so supplying, information regarding the business we undertake as follows:

- 1 to hold such information in confidence;
- 2 not to disclose or permit such information to be made available to any person, firm or company (other than our professional advisors) without your prior written consent; and
- 3 to only use such confidential information for the Permitted Purpose.

Please note that the above undertakings shall not apply to information that is or becomes (through no fault of our own) generally available to the public, is already in our possession free of any restriction as to its use or disclosure, or that we are obliged to disclose by law.

Yours sincerely
