We have been supplying the best possible fire safety and security protection to organisations around the UK since 1992. Working directly with companies within hospitality, our highly qualified technicians, engineers and support teams are acutely aware of legal requirements and work alongside customers to ensure needs are met and compliance is upheld.

Both fire protection and security are essential aspects of a purpose-built facility that cannot afford to be overlooked. The safety of lives, building and assets is vitally important to the day-to-day operation of any hotel.

A UK company with a local presence, we work with clients of all sizes to fulfil fire safety and security requirements with minimal disruption to day-to-day business.

Under The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005, employers, landlords and business owners in England and Wales are legally responsible for the fire safety of anybody who works at or visits their premises. In Scotland this is known as The Fire Safety Regulations 2006.

With a strong focus on customer service and a professional approach to compliance, we work hard to partner with our clients, enabling them to protect their staff, property and assets from the risk of fire and theft through long-term partnerships.
